Pre-test and Post-test Administration Procedure

Pre-tests are found in the Pretest Booklet. Post-tests can be found in Book 6, Questions and Answers. These should be administered separately, possibly on consecutive days. Rubrics for consistent marking are included in the Teachers' Pretest Manual and Teachers' Learning Progress Manuals.

There are two pretests, and these vary in difficulty.

Consider students' history of learning over time rather than have students completing tasks that are at a frustration level:

1. Consider previous evidence of individual student learning needs?
2. Decide if any students need extensive adjustments, with additional support for decoding or writing, with Teacher Aide support, scribe?
 - Names and adjustments to be noted.
3. Decide if any students might need additional time, and if this is practical within your classroom setting? Names and adjustments to be noted.

DIRECTIONS

1. Write START TIME (and FINISH TIME) in student book.
Students are to be given 30mins approximately to complete each task. If your grade decides to give some students extra time, then record how much extra time they take?
2. Please explain that this task will help them and you, the teacher, see what they can do and things they need to work on in answering questions.
Also explain that it is OK if they don't finish?
3. WRITE FINISH TIME as each student takes to complete the test in their BOOK.
4. Any student who requires assistance (include students with special needs) e.g. extra time, reading of words in texts, reading of questions, scribe – NOTE this in Teacher Manual or on the student's test, or both.
5. Marked by teachers using rubrics, entered on spreadsheet. (Note: Some On My Own questions may need team discussion around marking criteria, if student responses are different from those included in the rubric. Add new responses so they can be kept for future assessments)
6. School-based Decision: Results entered into an excel spreadsheet and emailed to supervisor or coordinator.

Current Skills A: Summer camp is fun!

The Brown family goes camping every summer. They camp and by a river at the beach.

The trip to camp can take a long time. Jack and Lily don't like the long trip to camp. They can sleep on long trips. They read books on long trips. As soon as they get to camp, Jack and Lily meet new friends and play with them.

There are some rules at camp. The rules help everyone have fun. One rule is to keep quiet in the early mornings because people sleep in on their holidays. The second rule is not to run in other people's camps.

There are many fun things to do at camp. At the camp, Lily likes swimming in the pool. Jack likes fishing and playing cricket.

They make new friends and have fun. Summer camp makes great memories!
